

ANYWHERE TONIGHT

(Neil Murray)

There's fresh air in the mountains and you can really see
I drove for three days at a dangerous speed
And now I'm standing still
Cool breeze blowing through my mind
And I'm in no hurry to be anywhere tonight

The life I had before seems like a bad dream
Last night in the mountains I had the deepest sleep
And I'd never have woken up again
'Cept the birds were singing the morning light
Now I'm in no hurry to be anywhere tonight

I met a woman today but we didn't hardly speak
The way she held herself I sensed a bad relationship
Just like a wounded bird she wasn't able to fly
Well I'm in no hurry to be anywhere tonight

Wish I could stay in the mountains and wait for Mohammed or someone
But I'll have to leave soon and go back to where I'm from
And I don't know when I return there
If there'll be anything left to find
So I'm in no hurry to be anywhere tonight
To be anywhere tonight
