

CALM AND CRYSTAL CLEAR

(Neil Murray)

Looking out on the back roads of my life
There's me again as a five year old child
Starin' at the broken toys scattered in the sand
Knowin' deep inside I was already an old man
This road unravels out of darkness now toward me
I feel the world stretch out vast now before
We live and dream in an ancient hallowed land
Some things that happen we may never understand

For I hear the voices of the past
(Sing of rage & relief)
And revelations come at last
(And it's keeping me from sleep)
And it's comin' to me
(I hear the word and it's calm and crystal clear)
Yes, it's come into my life
Calm and crystal clear

We are bound for an unknown destination
The stars above offer no consolation
We all live and breathe and die alone together
Some place, some day we'll leave our bones to the weather
Just like the smell of rain on the wind far away
A little truth arrives at the dying of each day
I wish the mountain would come and take me in her arms
I don't care what happens I won't come to any harm

For I hear the voices of the past
(Sing of rage & relief)
And revelations come at last
(And it's keeping me from sleep)
And it's comin' to me
(I hear the word and it's calm and crystal clear)
Yes, it's come into my life
Calm and crystal clear

For I hear the voices of the past
(Sing of rage & relief)
And revelations come at last
(And it's keeping me from sleep)
And it's comin' to me
(I hear the word and it's calm and crystal clear)
Yes, it's come into my life
Calm and crystal clear
