

EVERYTHING'S GOTTA GO BACK

(Neil Murray/Shane Howard)

What I got here don't belong to me I've only had it for a while I know you wanna get something but I don't have it all the time
Everything I got gotta go back, back to where it came
And what I found along the way gotta be handed on someday

Hey yeah whose got a hold of you when everything has to fall
who will carry you

They say all we really own are memories wish I could get rid of some of those You look like you want me to do something what it is I don't know Have you been stuck in the traffic or were you stuck on the land?
Maybe you even met me one time could be you shook my hand

Hey yeah whose got a hold of you
when everything has to fall
who will carry you

Everything I got gotta go back, back to where it came
And what I found along the way gotta be handed on some day
Wish there was something I could give you to make you feel alright Sometimes we just gotta sit here and wait for the sun to shine

Hey yeah, who's got a hold of you, when everything has to fall,
who will carry you
Hey yeah, who's got a hold of you, when everything has to fall, who will see you through
