

JOINING MY LIFE

(Neil Murray/George Djilaynga/Sammy Butcher)

I see lost and broken people
I see them sufferin' from the past
I see them trying to recover
And I see that it is very hard

Oh, I'm joining my life with yours today
Makes you see in a different way
Nothing's lost that can't be changed
I'm joining my life with yours today, whoah

Some people think they don't belong
Some people don't know who they are
Some people have their lives made up for them
Others have it torn apart

Oh, I'm joining my life with yours today
Makes you see in a different way
Nothing's lost that can't be changed
I'm joining my life with yours today, whoah

You might think you have nothing on this earth
You might get lost sometimes
But no matter, no matter what they say
You still got that spirit in your eyes, whoah

I'm joining my life with yours today
Makes you see in a different way
Nothing's lost that can't be changed
I'm joining my life with yours today, whoah

I'm joining my life with yours today (x4)
Yeah, yeah (x4)
