

LAST DANCE

(Neil Murray)

I noodled on a smoky green Gretsch guitar and it sang of a pure, old time devotion.

If you are thirsty I'll bring water to your lips
And if you are cold I will cover you
With my body and my mind

If you are hungry
I'll give all that I have
And if you are hurt
I'll take the pain
for you

And if you believe
Believe like I do
Then you'll say I love you
It'll always be true
You'll take my hand
And we'll have this last dance
Till the end of our days
It won't ever fade

If you are weary
I will give you sweet rest
And if you weep
I'll trade kisses for your tears.

And if you believe
Believe like I do
Then you'll say I love you
It'll always be true
You'll take my hand
And we'll have this last dance
Till the end of our days
It won't ever fade
