

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

(Neil Murray/Amy Saunders)

I stand in my own truth living on sweet FA
What others think of me is not my business to say
There'll be ripples in the pond
But I didn't throw the stone
I'm just hoping for a little
Unconditional love

Each day I go out
On the beach I roam
I write names in the sand
Just to bring them home
Whatever the sea keeps
Is what she wants
I'm just looking for a little
Unconditional love

So hard to find
With no strings attached
Folks get scared
Can't cope with that
Bloods thicker than water
But even families can stray
For unconditional love
There should be no price to pay

I'm done with the world of self pity
And feeling worthless every day
Im in town for less than 2hrs
Getting humbugged for accolades
Just when you think
Theres no room left in your heart
You can have a stranger
Who gives you
Unconditional love

So hard to find
With no strings attached
Folks get scared
Can't cope with that
Bloods thicker than water
But even families can stray
For unconditional love
There should be no price to pay
