

HEAL MY LIFE

(Neil Murray)

I feel your heart turn away from me again
The storm that's comin' is gonna do me in
I can't keep going on like this
Putting up with this conflict
Show me where the love is or let me go

I thought we were travelling oh so well
Now you're telling me it was hell
I don't want these bad feelings
Between us now there should be healing
Show me where the love is or let me go

I wanna heal my life, I'm gonna heal my life
I don't wanna fight no more
Well if the love is strong how come we don't get along
I'm gonna heal my life today

You could have let me go when you had the chance
I guess I'm just a sucker for the way you dance
I'm sick of playing these dumb games
When I see your angry face again
Show me where the love is or let me go.

I wanna heal my life, I'm gonna heal my life
I don't wanna fight no more
Well if the love is strong how come we don't we get along
Why won't it all come true?
I wanna heal my life, I'm gonna heal my life
I'm gonna heal my life today.
All our hopes and dreams, what did that ever mean?
I don't wanna fight no more
I wanna heal my life, I'm gonna heal my life
I'm gonna heal my life today
