

HOLDING ON TO SKY

(Neil Murray)

Well I see you in the morning dressed up in somethin' warm
And you're giving me a hug as you're headin' out the door
I must have seen you a hundred times out and through the gate
And each time you closed it I'd feel my heart ache
And I wonder if you know about a love that was grown

I remember how you used to laugh and leap into my arms
It was you that held me there, I tried to keep you from harm
Now there's a wall between us and I never see your face
You've been captured by a lie and your heart has turned away
And I don't know if you'll ever know about a love that was grown

I'm holdin' on to sky, holdin' on to sky
Lettin' the days go by, holdin' on to sky

It's a setback for humanity, it's a wake-up for the brave
When hatred comes to replace
Well I don't expect you'll ever knock again upon my door
But I hope you'll come to understand what you blame me for
Your life is a gift, child
Don't squander it that way
There's beauty all around you, if you care to look someday
Maybe you'll never know about a love that was grown

I'm holdin' on to sky, holdin' on to sky
Lettin' the days go by, holdin' on to sky

Maybe you don't want the truth
Maybe it's too hard
Well I pray for your heart

Holdin' on to sky, holdin' on to sky
Lettin' the days go by, holdin' on to sky
Don't even wonder why, holdin' on to sky
Once upon a time, holdin' on to sky