

I CAN GO ON

(Neil Murray)

Daybreak and I arise in your adoring gaze
It's a new day
You keep me alive
Watching you shine in your own way
Any moment with you, I'll take
For we both know you've got more years than I have to go

But I can go on, I can be strong
As long as you're holding me
Throw out your arms 'cause I can go on
As long as they're holding me

Look at you now – impish grin and dancing feet
You want me to follow, but I can hardly find the beat
My body aches, I wonder what happened to my youth
I just have spent it somewhere or you wouldn't be here
To give me the proof

But I can go on, I can be strong
As long as you're holding me
Throw out your arms 'cause I can go on
As long as they're holding me

You're going forward, while I fall behind
You'll go somewhere way beyond me
Where I'll never be
Take my memory in your heart

The light grows dim and my days are running out
Some dull afternoon, I'll probably topple from the couch
Don't worry 'bout me, I'll be with you where ever you go
And I'll see you one day, in the place we both know

'Cause I can go on, I can be strong
As long as you're holding me
Throw out your arms 'cause I can go on
As long as they're holding me
