

KEEP THIS PICTURE

(Neil Murray)

One night in a crowded bar, a face I can't forget
Another night, that same face
Full of grief and bitterness
Tears on the pillow baby, tears by me and you
We've come this far together
I wish it could come true

Do you recall the desert baby can you see that mountain still?
Can you feel the night time
Does it bring you a chill?
Stars above our heads
Were strung out and forlorn
Remember how we held each other and waited for the dawn

I'll keep this picture with me now that, now that you're gone
I'll keep this picture with me now that, now that you are gone

If I could have a child, I'd have that child with you
Greater love hath no one, than to hear these words from you
There's only just one lifetime and that's enough to do
Tears on the pillow, I came too late for you

But, I'll keep this picture with me now that, now that you're gone
I'll keep this picture with me now that you are gone

Do you remember, yes do you remember
How we waited for the dawn?
I'll keep this picture with me now that you are gone
I see the mountains, I feel the night time, I see the stars and I see the dawn
And the tears, they fall like rain every day since you passed on

But, I'll keep this picture with me now that you are gone
I'll keep this picture with me now that you are gone
