

OUT OF REACH

(Neil Murray)

Into the night I lean
A dumped man since she left me waiting without a clue
What can I do when she can't say words of love
Blow away in the wind

I'll take a boat to the sea, let the breeze carry me
Far away from the shore where she will be

It'll be too late for reprieve or rescue or please
I'll be gone `cross the waves, out of reach
I'll be gone...out of reach

Well I hope she can see how I tried to be The best man for her for a while

Into the light I'll see her waiting patiently
Through long, lonely nights far away
And I'll wonder and dream of her, and what could have been
If we hadn't got so far... out of reach
If we hadn't got so far... out of reach
